When I first saw Important Things With Demetri Martin, I said to myself, "this is the funniest thing ever." I was wrong. This Is A Book is better -- Malcolm Gladwell, author of 'Outliers' This Is a Probability. If you like random, short-attention-span riffs built on pithy comic premises, Martin's your man. If you delight in writing that deconstructs comedy even while constructing it, his self ...

The book is basically what Demetri used to put on his show "Important Things" with the addition of some personal stories using metaphors. I'm a big fan of his humor so I did laugh a lot throughout the whole book. Of course there were some parts that were too silly or not funny at all, but that happens with every comedian.
