New Venture Creation is about the actual process of getting a new venture started, growing the venture, successfully harvesting it, and starting again. Now revitalised in an Asia-Pacific edition, this title continues to be the product of experience and considerable research in the field. It is grounded in real-world application yet has been refined in the classroom to make it an ideal, practical teaching and learning resource. The design and flow of the book are aimed at creating knowledge, skills and awareness in a pragmatic way. The text, case studies and hands-on exercises mean that students are drawn in to discover critical aspects of entrepreneurship. The text also clearly shows students what levels of competencies, know-how, experience, attitudes, resources and networks are required to pursue different entrepreneurial opportunities. With a foreword on the implications of the global financial crisis for entrepreneurs launching new firms now, New Venture Creation is the most up to date text in the market. It explores the latest data and updates on the key changes in the new world of capital markets, the economy and the banking environment that are relevant to entrepreneurs. New cases and exercises make the text more relevant to the local market whilst retaining the vital international perspective of the original text. You'll also find new text material to capture the current financial, economic, technological and globally competitive environment of this first decade of the new century.

Timmons & Spinelli's, New Venture Creation: Entrepreneurship For The 21st Century, 6/e is a perforated paperback text that covers the process of getting a new venture started, growing the venture, successfully harvesting it and starting again. Through text, case studies, and hands-on exercises, the book guides students in discovering the concepts of entrepreneurship and the competencies, skills, know-how and experience that are sufficient to pursue different entrepreneurial opportunities. The authors recognize that there is no substitute for actually starting a company, but believe that it is possible to expose students to many of the vital issues and immerse them in key learning experiences.

THE ENTREPRENEURIAL MIND, Jeffrey A. Timmons, Harvard Business School
"A well-written & practical book designed to aid persons contemplating an entrepreneurial venture. Timmons, a specialist in entrepreneurship, has done an excellent job covering the field. Starting with a broad overview of what entrepreneurship is, he concludes with an assessment aimed at summing up the strengths & weaknesses of a new enterprise in advance. In between, he provides sound advice on necessary managerial skills; how to form, build, & reward a new venture team; planning & goal-setting; & the pros & cons of family businesses. Particular attention is also given to the need for ethical standards.

Recommended." -- Library Journal. "A close look at the psychology of the entrepreneur & how that type of personality reacts with people & the world at large. Timmons does a good job of exploding myths & misconceptions, offering a wealth of insight into success, failure, & the hard work it takes to succeed in starting up a business or taking over the reins of an established or family-owned enterprise. The pitfalls of entrepreneurial life are analyzed, but more importantly, the positive attributes of the entrepreneur are emphasized. Numerous real-life case studies supplement the coverage." -- Booklist.
